

Global Governance and Enforcement of Competition Law

DRAFT Programme for the 14th December 2018

Venue: XFI Conference Room 1, University of Exeter, Exeter

10:00 am – 11:00 am – The Proposed Project and its Context

Mihail Danov (University of Exeter), Global Governance and Enforcement of Competition Law in Cross-Border Cases: Theoretical Model and Research Methodology

15-minute break

11.15 am – 12.30 pm – Enforcement of Competition Laws in a Global Context

Chair: Joasia Luzak (University of Exeter)

Florian Becker (Kiel University), Extraterritorial Application of Competition Laws: Regulatory Jurisdiction

Pierre Horna (UNCTAD), Specific Issues concerning Enforcement of Competition Law in Developing Countries

Lunch (12.30 pm – 1.30 pm)

1.30 pm – 3.00 pm - Cross-Border Competition Law Cases: Brexit Challenges and Opportunities

Chair: Florian Becker (Kiel University)

Carsten Krüger (CDC Cartel Damage Claims, Germany), Claimants' Perspective on Private Antitrust Enforcement in the EU: A View from the European Union

Deba Das (Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP), Defendants' Perspective on Private Antitrust Enforcement: A View from the United Kingdom

Stephen Dnes (New College of the Humanities), A Global Perspective on Antitrust Enforcement: Brexit Challenges/Opportunities

15-minute break

3.15 pm – 4.45 pm – Competition Law Enforcement: Digital Markets and Consumers

Chair: Mihail Danov (University of Exeter)

Timothy Cowen TBC (Preiskel & Co), New Challenges – Digital Markets: Hands-on Experience with Streetmap's Claim for Damages against Google

Joasia Luzak (University of Exeter), Enforcement of Competition Law: How to provide effective remedies for consumers in the EU?

4.45 pm – 4.50 pm - Mihail Danov (Exeter), Concluding Remarks and Next Steps