

U.S. immigration law - a brief overview with Anthony Vale

*Anthony Vale,
Senior Counsel at Troutman Pepper*

Anthony Vale is a 1972 law graduate from the University of Exeter, who has been practising law in the USA for many years.

Tony now represents immigrants caught up in the US immigration system, who seek asylum or relief from removal. He has been successful in cases on behalf of non-citizens from Angola, Cameroon, El Salvador Guatemala and Honduras.

These cases are difficult and raise many constitutional issues, which he will clarify and discuss during his talk. Students and staff are all welcome.
