Repression of protests has resulted in mass eye trauma
among demonstrators around the world.

The National Strike that broke out across Colombia on April 28th, 2021, was no different. The documentary 'Reborn Eyes' tells the story of MOCAO, a group that brings together victims of ocular mutilation in an urgent demand for justice and solidarity in the face of state violence.

Including discussion with Neil Corney
(Omega Research Foundation) on less lethal weapons (mis)use in an international context.
