Join us for a panel discussion on the ongoing crisis in Sudan, where we will explore the realities of displacement, sexual and gender-based violence, and the broader challenges faced by vulnerable communities. The discussion will also delve into the historical context of the conflict, examining its roots and the lasting impact on Sudanese society. Additionally, the panel discussion will highlight the role of Sudanese youth in raising awareness through social media and local initiatives, as well as efforts to bring attention to the situation through exhibitions and outreach in Plymouth and Exeter.
