

The Wye Valley Society and the Nubian Languages and Culture Project present the following exhibition

A Tale of Two Rivers:

The Lower Wye and the Nubian Nile

The exhibition reflects on how the people of each river valley are dealing with threats to their environment and how they are protecting these outstanding sites of natural beauty and cultural importance.

The focus of the exhibition is the importance of the environment of both the river Wye and the Nubian Nile for personal inspiration and the flourishing of intangible culture.

Opening address to launch the exhibition:
Mr Osama Daoud Abdellatif
Chairman of DAL Group, Sudan

Professor Herman Bell, IAIS, University of Exeter,
Nubian Languages and Culture Project.

Rob Golder, Wye Valley Society.

Dr Kirsty Rowan, SOAS,
Nubian Languages and Culture Project.

Jane Clark, IAIS, University of Exeter.

Thursday 23 February - Friday 19 May, 2017
Launch ceremony: Thursday 23 February, 4-7pm
Institute of Arab and Islamic Studies 'The Street',
University of Exeter, EX4 4ND

For more information contact:
m.j.williams2@exeter.ac.uk
or cas@soas.ac.uk